MEMORANDUM FOR: All Holders of National Intelligence Digest

SUBJECT : Discontinuance of the Publication

1. An informal but thorough survey has been conducted among the holders of the National Intelligence Digest. This survey discloses that little use is made of the publication. The National Intelligence Estimates, the Country Handbooks prepared by our Office of Current Intelligence and other intelligence and reference publications adequately fulfill the needs which exist for ready reference intelligence materials.

2. Considerable effort and expense go into the monthly revisions of the Digest. Since it is clear that the limited use to which it is put does not justify this effort and expense, we have decided to discontinue its publication forthwith. Our records indicate that you are the holders of copy number _____. In view of the fact that it will shortly become obsolete, it is directed that you return your copy to:

Central Intelligence Agency
2430 E Street, N.W.
Washington, D. C.
Attn: CTSC, 1334 M Bldg.
